

Making a difference...together

Make a difference and become a part of the Capital Regional District's vibrant future! Located in one of the world's premier places to live, work and visit, the Capital Regional District (CRD) strives to create liveable, vibrant communities, practice exemplary environmental stewardship and build a prosperous and sustainable economy. We are an outcome driven, high performance organization respected for its commitment to the citizens we service and the services we provide.

Manager, Corporate Occupational Health & Safety

As part of a highly successful team dedicated to service excellence, this exciting local government position provides strategic occupational health and safety leadership and hands-on support and expertise for our highly dynamic, safety-award winning, COR (Certificate of Recognition) certified organization.

As a senior professional subject matter expert, the Manager of Corporate Occupational Health & Safety (OHS) is accountable for leading and contributing to the ongoing development, implementation, coordination and administration of the CRD's Occupational Health and Safety programs, as well as our comprehensive People, Safety & Culture Strategic Plan actions and initiatives. As a key role within the organization and on our team, you bring an exceptional understanding of and experience in OHS including those related to operational and capital programs, as well as exceptional skills and experience working collaboratively with, guiding and empowering a dedicated team of staff both within the field and outside of it. This position oversees a team of other safety professionals, and reports to the Senior Manager of People, Safety & Culture.

To be successful in this role, the ideal candidate will have a Degree in a related field and significant relevant professional OHS experience, preferably in a unionized environment. A Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP) designation, or eligibility, is required. A full detail of requirements is posted in the description on the CRD website.

Current salary for this position is $138,213 to 162,603 annually, plus a comprehensive benefits package. This is your opportunity to work with an organization that is leading the way and making a difference to the sustainability of the Capital Region. To further explore this exciting opportunity, please visit our web site at www.crd.bc.ca "Careers".

Review of applications received will commence on November 25, 2024, and you are encouraged to submit your application prior to this date for full consideration; however, the competition will remain open until a successful candidate is found or until otherwise advised on our website.

The Capital Regional District wishes to thank you for your interest and advises that only those candidates under active consideration will be contacted.
